INDUCTAL TO THE RESERVE WORLD. GUTTENBURG RACE TRACE, Feb. 16. - Despite the miserable weather and the counter-attract tion of free admission at Dundee, there was quite a good crowd of people at Guttenburg this afternoon. A fine, drinzling rain kept every one under cover, and the glass case at the rear of the stand was greatly appreciated.

The track was sloppy and at the same time beavy. The rain was warm, and it pene-trated to the bottom of the half-frozen track. Scratches were numerous, and in the first event only seven of fifteen came to the post.
